

C-68 Caboose Restoration

To finish the month, on Halloween, Oct. 31, 2009 three gallons of safety orange paint were applied to Caboose C-68!

Following scraping, sanding and priming, RMLI member and volunteer Neil Feldman applies paint to the east side of C-68.

Black roof paint, final orange paint and lettering will commence before the Spring 2010 Museum opening.

